Mrs. Kyes’ Classroom Procedures
jesskyes@springfield.k12.il.us

Entering the classroom
- Enter quietly.
- Begin working on starter activity
- Sharpen pencils (no more than 2 students at a time)
- Sit in assigned seat.
- Any student who is not in their seat when the bell rings will be counted tardy.
- Any student wandering around the room will be counted tardy.

During Class
- Fully participate in class. This includes doing the work expected.
- Ask questions.
- Listen.
- Stay seated.

Before leaving
- Write down the agenda in your planner. You will not be dismissed until you do.
- Note to parents: Please ask to see your child’s binder/planner on a daily basis.
- Make sure you understand the assignment.
- Organize materials.
- Clean up your space.
- Wait for the teacher to dismiss (not the bell).

Have a Question
- Raise your hand.
- Wait quietly until called upon by teacher.
- No question is a “stupid” question if you don’t understand something!
- It is never OK to laugh at a seriously posed question.
- It is smart to ask a question when you don’t understand something!

Heading
- Upper right corner
- Name (First and Last)
- Date
- Class

Late Work
- All assignments are submitted on the due date.
- Class Work will not be taken late unless you were absent.
- It is YOUR responsibility to obtain all assignments after an absence.
- I will accept late HOMEWORK for half credit up to two weeks before the end of each quarter.

Bathroom use
- Working on a lesson – WAIT
- During work time – raise your hand and ask
- Emergency – fill out passes (planner and hall), get teacher initials, go!
Absences

It is your responsibility to get missed work.
Check the missed work folder for any handouts with your name on them.
Ask a classmate for any notes.
Assignments are posted on the board daily.
If you have any other questions about absent work, see me after class.

Using classroom materials

Keep materials neat and orderly.
Return to appropriate location when finished.
Return in the same or better condition.

Teacher is late

Line up in hall.
Remain quiet.

Classroom Library

I have a large classroom library that you may utilize.
To check out a book, put your name on the slip of paper provided and put it in the pocket chart.
Return books to the “book return” basket.
If you lose a book or damage a book in any way, you may be issued a fine.
Note to parents: It is impossible for me to have read every book in my classroom library. Please monitor what your child is reading to make sure you are comfortable with the content of each book.
