

A Blessing for Aaron

THE LORD BLESS YOU, AARON, TO WALK IN THE FEAR OF THE LORD ALL THE DAYS OF THY LIFE. THE LORD BLESS THE LABOR OF THY HANDS AND THE PURPOSES OF THY HEART. THE LORD BLESS YOU WITH WISDOM, COURAGE AND COMPASSION. THE LORD BLESS THE WOMAN THAT IS COME INTO THY HOUSE. ■

A Blessing for Laura

THE LORD BLESS YOU, LAURA, TO FIND CONTENTMENT, JOY AND PEACE. THE LORD BLESS YOU TO BE LIKE A FRUITFUL VINE AND THY CHILDREN AS OLIVE PLANTS ROUND ABOUT THY TABLE. MAY YOU BE LIKE LEAH AND RACHEL WHICH TWO DID BUILD THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL. ■

WEDDING DAY AT TROLDHAUGEN ■

“Wedding Day” was written by Edvard Grieg for his wife on their wedding anniversary. We studied this piece when we first met at an Advanced Conducting course in Indianapolis. We both loved it and have fond memories of analyzing it in class. It will be played by Jordan Flournoy who was one of our classmates during that course.

NESSUN DORMA ■

Written for an opera, “Nessun Dorma” describes a prince and a princess from two kingdoms who fall in love. We also studied this piece in Advanced Conducting, and remember discussing its beauty while standing at the back of the room listening to the orchestra rehearse. Mr. Baldrige, who will play this on the trombone, was our instructor that week.

I THANK MY GOD FOR YOU ■

This song was written by our sister Amy, for her parent’s twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The words fit our relationship so well that we have included it as a special part of our marriage ceremony.
