

Employment Contract Template LIVE-IN CAREGIVER EMPLOYER/EMPLOYEE CONTRACT

All information and clauses set out in this employment contract template must be addressed in all Live-in Caregiver Employer/Employee contracts to enable HRSDC/CIC (Human Resources and Skills Development Canada/Customs and Immigration Canada) and to assess whether the employment is likely to have a neutral or positive effect on the labour market in Canada.

EMPLOYER #1
Last name:	Given name(s):
Relationship with the person(s) receiving care:
Street address:
City:	Province/Territory:
Postal Code: Telephone (home):	Telephone (work):
Email:
EMPLOYER #2 (if applicable)
EMPLOYER information must be provided provide instruction to the EMPLOYEE.	for each person who will contribute to wages paid to the EMPLOYEE or will
Last name:	Given name(s):
Relationship with the person(s) receiving care:
Street address:
City:	Province/Territory:
Postal Code: Telephone (home):	Telephone (work):
Email:
EMPLOYEE - Job Offer of Employment - Liv	ve-in Caregiver
Note: provide employee's current address, address.	i.e. overseas address if foreign worker is still living overseas or in-Canada
Last name:	Given name(s):
Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD):	Street address:
City:	Province/Territory:
Country:	Postal Code:
Telephone (home):	Telephone (work):
Email:

1. EMPLOYEE'S PLACE OF WORK
NOTE: Under the Live-in Caregiver Progra considered toward the live-in caregiver's we not be counted.
Will the EMPLOYEE work at EMPLOYER's Yes ☐ No ☐	s residence in Canada as indicated above?
If no, provide the details of where the EMP receiving care):	LOYEE will work and reside (must be in the	e residence in Canada of the person
Street address:
City:	Province/Territory:
Postal Code: Telephone (hon	ne): Teleph	Telephone (work):
Email:
Description of the house and the house	hold where care will be provided
Total number of rooms:	Total number of bedrooms:
Details of all household members (ALL adu	ults and minors residing in the house):
Surname	Given name(s)	Age
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
If more space is required, add an annex to	this contract and cross-reference.
The PARTIES agree as follows:
2. Duration of contract
This contract shall have a duration of Anticipated start date	months from the date t	he EMPLOYEE assumes his/her functions.
3. Work permit
Both parties agree that this contract is conditional limiting and Refugee Protection Act are		valid work permit pursuant to the anada under the Live-in Caregiver Program

4. Job description The EMPLOYEE agrees to provide services as a live-in caregiver and carry out the following tasks in the home of the person requiring care. Details of person(s) requiring care: Type of care Last Name Given name Age (child, elderly or disabled) 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. If more space is required, add an annex to this contract and cross-reference. Describe care responsibilities/duties (specify if there will be meal preparation, shopping, driving, housekeeping, pet care, etc.): 5. Work schedule and wages The parties agree to abide by provincial/territorial labour/employment standards regarding wages and leave. 1. The EMPLOYEE shall work hours per week. 2. The EMPLOYEE's workday shall begin at and end at , or if the schedule varies by day, specify work hours: 3. The EMPLOYEE shall be entitled to minutes for each meal break. paid unpaid 4. The EMPLOYEE shall be entitled to number of health breaks of minutes. paid unpaid 5. The EMPLOYEE shall be entitled to day(s) off per week, on 6. The EMPLOYEE shall be entitled to _____ days of paid vacation per year. The schedule shall be confirmed by the EMPLOYER and the EMPLOYEE at least weeks in advance of the proposed date. paid unpaid 7. The EMPLOYEE shall be entitled to days of sick leave per year.

8. The EMPLOYEE shall be entitled to all applicable provincial, territorial and national statutory and public holidays with pay.

9. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay the EMPLOYEE for his/her work by cheque or alternate means if mutually agreed and with documentation and receipts, the gross wages before deductions in the amount of: $
10. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay the wages on the following basis: weekly bi-weekly monthly. 11. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay the EMPLOYEE for his/her overtime hours as indicated on HRSDC's Website. 12. The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's wages to ensure they meet or exceed the prevailing wage rate requirements for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate wage increases by amending no. 9 of this section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE's incurred and the date of the amendment. 13. The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's room and board charges to ensure they do no exceed the prevailing room and board rates for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate room and board increases by amending no. 2 and/or no. 3 of the "Accommodation" section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. 14. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay taxes and submit all deductions payable as prescribed by law (including, but not limited to, employment insurance, income tax, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan). NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have paid to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE or any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYEE must reimburse the EMPLO	with	documentation and rec	eipts, the gross wages b weekly	-4-		por wook.
 The EMPLOYER agrees to pay the EMPLOYEE for his/her overtime hours as indicated on HRSDC's Website. The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's wages to ensure they meet or exceed the prevailing wage rate requirements for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate wage increases by amending no. 9 of this section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's room and board charges to ensure they do no exceed the prevailing room and board rates for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate room and board increases by amending no. 2 and/or no. 3 of the "Accommodation" section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay taxes and submit all deductions payable as prescribed by law (including, but not limited to, employment insurance, income tax, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan). NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. Recruitment Fees Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have pair to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the E	10. Th	e EMPLOYER agrees to	pay the wages on the fo	ollowing basis:
 The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's wages to ensure they meet or exceed the prevailing wage rate requirements for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate wage increases by amending no. 9 of this section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's room and board charges to ensure they do no exceed the prevailing room and board rates for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate room and board increases by amending no. 2 and/or no. 3 of the "Accommodation' section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay taxes and submit all deductions payable as prescribed by law (including, but not limited to, employment insurance, income tax, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan). NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. Recruitment Fees Recruitment Fees NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYEE must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. With suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requir		weekly	☐ bi-weekly	monthly.
prevailing wage rate requirements for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate wage increases by amending no. 9 of this section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYEE and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. 13. The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's room and board charges to ensure they do not exceed the prevailing room and board rates for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate room and board increases by amending no. 2 and/or no. 3 of the "Accommodation" section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. 14. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay taxes and submit all deductions payable as prescribed by law (including, but not limited to, employment insurance, income tax, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan). NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have paid to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any	11. Th	e EMPLOYER agrees to	pay the EMPLOYEE fo	r his/her overtime hours as indicat	ted on HRSDC's Website .
contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. 13. The EMPLOYER agrees to regularly review and adjust the EMPLOYEE's room and board charges to ensure they do no exceed the prevailing room and board rates for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLOYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE will indicate room and board increases by amending no. 2 and/or no. 3 of the "Accommodation" section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. 14. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay taxes and submit all deductions payable as prescribed by law (including, but not limited to, employment insurance, income tax, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan). NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have paid to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The	pre	evailing wage rate requir	ements for live-in caregi exceed the prevailing room and board rates for live-in caregivers in the region where the EMPLÔYEE is being employed as indicated on HRSDC's website. The EMPLOYER and EMPLOYER will indicate room and board increases by amending no. 2 and/or no. 3 of the "Accommodation" section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. 14. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay taxes and submit all deductions payable as prescribed by law (including, but not limited to, employment insurance, income tax, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan). NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have pair to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount
"Accommodation" section of the contract in writing, and with all EMPLOYER and EMPLOYEE signatures and the date of the amendment. 14. The EMPLOYER agrees to pay taxes and submit all deductions payable as prescribed by law (including, but not limited to, employment insurance, income tax, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan). NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have paid to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/terriforial liabour/employment standards. Refer to	exc	ceed the prevailing roon	n and board rates for live
NOTE: Employers are reminded that overtime hourly rates may vary, for example, depending on the day of the week or for national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have paid to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to	"Ad	ccommodation" section national statutory or public holidays. NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have pair to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to
NOTE: HRSDC regularly reviews and updates the prevailing wage rate table. EMPLOYERS must, at the minimum, increase the EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have pair to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to				may vary, for example, depending	g on the day of the week or for
EMPLOYEE's wages as they are increased as per HRSDC's website. 6. Recruitment Fees The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have pair to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to	national st	atutory or public holiday	S.
The EMPLOYER shall not recoup from the EMPLOYEE, through payroll deductions or any other means, the fees they have paid to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to					must, at the minimum, increase the to a third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) for services related to hiring and retaining the EMPLOYEE. NOTE: Should the EMPLOYER'S third party recruiter or recruitment agency, or their authorized representative(s) charge the EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to	6. Recruit	tment Fees
 EMPLOYEE for any recruitment fees, the EMPLOYER must reimburse the EMPLOYEE in full for any such costs disclosed with proof by the EMPLOYEE. 7. Accommodation 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to 	to a third p	arty recruiter or recruitn
 The EMPLOYER agrees to ensure that reasonable and proper accommodation is available for the EMPLOYEE, and shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $\frac{per}{2}$ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to 	EMPLOYE	EE for any recruitment fe shall provide the EMPLOYEE with suitable furnished accommodation. Suitable accommodation is housing that meets municipal building requirements and health standards set by the province. This includes a private unit or a room with a lock and which therein provides living and sleeping facilities intended for human habitation with no visible or structural repairs required. 2. The EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of the room at an amount of $ per through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to	7. Accomi	modation through payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to	shal mun lock	II provide the EMPLOYE nicipal building requirem and which therein provi	E with suitable furnished ents and health standard	accommodation. Suitable accoms set by the province. This include	modation is housing that meets es a private unit or a room with a throu	ugh payroll deductions.			mployment standards. Refer to thi	re EMPLOYER will recoup the costs of meals at an amount of $perrough payroll deductions. The amount must not exceed provincial/territorial labour/employment standards. Refer to e HRSDC's website.

V	he EMPLOYER agrees to provide the EMPLOYEE with meals, where applicable, and an adequate, properly heated and entilated room. The door of the room shall be equipped with a lock and a safety bolt from within the room and the MPLOYEE will be provided with the corresponding key.
	he EMPLOYER shall provide the EMPLOYEE with independent access to the residence (for example, house keys, ecurity code) where the EMPLOYEE resides.
6. T	he EMPLOYER agrees to provide the employee with (check if applicable):
	Private Bathroom
	☐ Telephone (charge of $per month or ☐ no charge, except for long-distance calls)
	Radio (in his/her room)
	Television (in his/her room)
	☐ Internet access (☐ Charge ☐ No Charge
	Other, specify:
	Description of EMPLOYEE's room and furnishings:
8. Trans	sportation costs
Use the	appropriate clause according to the situation. Strike out the clause which does not apply.
1. Ir	the situation where the live-in caregiver resides abroad:
	he EMPLOYER agrees to pay the EMPLOYEE's transportation costs for the one-way trip travel from his/her country of ermanent residence or of current residence to the place of work in Canada, namely from _	country of permanent residence or of current residence) to (place of work in Canada).
((place of work in Canada).
th	is the EMPLOYER's obligation and responsibility to pay for the transportation costs and they cannot be passed on to ne foreign worker (for example, the EMPLOYEE must not pay the transportation on behalf of the employer to be eimbursed at a later date). Under no circumstances are transportation costs recoverable from the EMPLOYEE.
OR
	the situation where the live-in caregiver resides in Canada:
2. Ir	the situation where the live-in caregiver resides in Canada: the EMPLOYEE is currently in Canada, the EMPLOYER agrees to pay the costs of transporting the EMPLOYEE from is/her current Canadian address to the new place of work in Canada, namely from
2. Ir	the EMPLOYEE is currently in Canada, the EMPLOYER agrees to pay the costs of transporting the EMPLOYEE from is/her current Canadian address to the new place of work in Canada, namely from
2. Ir	the EMPLOYEE is currently in Canada, the EMPLOYER agrees to pay the costs of transporting the EMPLOYEE from

It is the EMPLOYER's obligation and responsibility to pay for the transportation cost and it cannot be passed on to the foreign worker (for example, the EMPLOYEE must not pay the transportation on behalf of the employer to be reimbursed at a later date). Under no circumstances are transportation costs recoverable from the EMPLOYEE.

NOTE: Transportation costs include the purchase of tickets for a live-in caregiver to travel by plane, train, boat or bus from his/ her country of permanent residence or of current residence to the location of work in Canada. If the live-in caregiver is already in Canada, transportation costs include the worker's travel to the new location of work. The mode of transportation must have the least negative impact on the live-in caregiver in terms of travel time, expenses and inconvenience. Travel costs do not include for example, hotels, meals and miscellaneous expenses during the worker's travel to Canada or the new place of work in Canada.

9. Health care insurance

- 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to provide health care insurance of equal coverage to that of the public provincial/territorial health insurance plan at no cost to the EMPLOYEE until such time as the EMPLOYEE is eligible for applicable provincial/territorial health insurance.
- 2. The employer agrees not to deduct money from the EMPLOYEE's wages for this purpose.

10. Workplace safety insurance (called Worker's Compensation)

- 1. The EMPLOYER agrees to register the EMPLOYEE under the relevant provincial/territorial government insurance plan or its equivalent (for free, on-the-job injury or illness insurance).
- 2. The EMPLOYER agrees not to deduct money from the EMPLOYEE's wages for this purpose.

11. Notice of resignation

Should he/she wish to terminate the present contract, the EMPLOYEE agrees to give the EMPLOYER written notice thereof at least _____ weeks in advance. The parties agree to abide by provincial/territorial labour/employment standards regarding written notice of resignation.

It is recommended that a copy of the relevant portions of provincial/territorial labour standards be attached as an appendix.)

12. Notice of termination of employment

The EMPLOYER must give written notice before terminating the contract of the EMPLOYEE. This notice shall be given at least weeks in advance. The parties agree to abide by provincial/territorial labour/employment standards regarding written notice of termination of employment.

It is recommended that a copy of the relevant portions of provincial/territorial labour standards be attached as an appendix.)

SIGNATURE OF ALL EMPLOYERS I have read and accepted all the terms and conditions stipulated in the present contract. I declare that the information I have given in this employment contract is truthful, complete and correct and that I will abide by the terms and conditions outlined therein. I will abide by the employment and labour standards in the province/territory where the EMPLOYEE resides. I will provide a Record of Employment on termination of employment. I agree to maintain complete records of employment, including any additional or overtime hours worked and to provide the employee with accurate records reflecting their employment, salary and allowable deductions on their behalf. EMPLOYER #1: Given name (print): Surname (print): EMPLOYER'S Signature: Date (YYYY/MM/DD): EMPLOYER #2 (if applicable): Given name (print): Surname (print): EMPLOYER #2 Signature: Date (YYYY/MM/DD): Add above information and signature of all EMPLOYERS listed on this employment contract. SIGNATURE OF EMPLOYEE I have read and accepted all the terms and conditions stipulated in the present contract. I declare that the information I have given in this employment contract is truthful, complete and correct and I will abide by the terms and conditions outlined therein. I will abide by the terms and conditions of this employment contract and the employment and labour standards in my province/ territory of residence.

Surname (print):

EMPLOYEE'S Signature: Date (YYYY/MM/DD):

Given name (print):