

BLANK BUBBLE MAP

Brainstorming in a nutshell is a process of generating ideas. The term has come to imply any ree-association method of generating ideas and includes idea generation techniques that involve giving everyone in a group, or at least the leader, time to think of as many ideas as possible within the time allotted.

