employment position

Dear Mr. Interviewer,

Thank you for your time during our interview for the HR Generalist position yesterday. I truly appreciated learning about the overall operations of your HR department and the opportunity this position offers.

As we discussed, I am confident that my academic coursework and internship experience has provided me with an excellent background for this opportunity as well as my supervisory role at XYZ Retail Company where I was privileged to train, mentor and develop motivational initiatives for new employees. Your rotation program will provide an opportunity to contribute to the ongoing success of your department.

I am very interested in this opportunity. When we met, you indicated you hoped to make a decision on the next step in the process by Friday. I'll look forward to hearing from you then. You may reach me at 585.555.1212 or myemail@aol.com. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Jill Student

Sample email or handwritten thank you following an Informational Interview

Dear Ms. McDermott,

I am writing to let you know how much I appreciated your willingness to meet with me for an informational interview and answer my many questions about the career services field. I learned so much that convinced me more than ever that this is an area I would like to pursue.

Thank you also for the contact information you provided for career advisers at the larger Rochester institutions that serve significant international student populations. As we discussed, a position as a Career Advisor to international students would be a great way for me to combine my interest in counseling with my passion for cultural studies and international politics.

If you have any other advice or suggestions for me, please contact me at (585) 666-1234 or samwalton@email.com. Again, thank you for meeting with me, sharing so enthusiastically about career services and helping me to expand my networking circle.

Sincerely,

Sam Walton
